

Sunspots Data Graph

Plot the changes in sunspot areas against time on a graph, with time in days on the horizontal axis, and sunspot areas on the vertical axis. Put a point on the graph for each day's pair of images, where a line up from the time axis at the date meets a line over from the sunspot axis at the height of the total area. What changes can you observe during the month?